

SPEND YOUR VACATIONS AT THE JOURNALISTS' VILLAGE IN CYPRUS

Union of Cyprus Journalists

The Journalists' Village – a great project of the Union of Cyprus Journalists, next to a splendid sandy beach in the area of the sea resort of Pervolia and between the historic Lighthouse at Cape Kiti and the Venetian Tower of Regina, only five kilometres from the International Larnaca Air Port – is available for your holidays at affordable prices.

It offers the following facilities:

- 14 fully furnished and fully equipped houses – six two-bedroom maisonettes with sitting hall, kitchen, bathroom and two toilets, and eight one-bedroom apartments with sitting hall, kitchen and bathroom. The two bedroom house can accommodate up to five persons and the one bedroom apartment up to three persons.
- Multi-function Hall for meetings, gatherings and social-cultural events.
- The ENALIA cafeteria / restaurant with its fresh fish and other dishes at reasonable prices.
- A wonderful, sandy organized beach for sun-bathing and swimming.
- A beautiful and pleasant environment which can be a starting point for further exploring the area, rich in history and natural sights.

The Journalists' Village is connected by public buses with the neighboring city of Larnaca and all the other cities of the island.

Plan in time and reserve a house. The Journalists' Village is at the disposal of all people interested in quiet and leisurely vacations.

The fees are as follow:

- a) Two bedroom house (up to five persons): €55 VAT included.
 - b) One bedroom apartment (up to three persons): €45 VAT included.
- There is a charge of 70 cents for every hour of using each air-conditioning unit (optional use)
